

Respect

Players Code of Conduct

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behavior in the game.

As a player, you have a big part to play.

That's why Dynamos is asking every player to follow a Code of Conduct.

When playing soccer, I will:

- I will make every effort to attend ALL practices and games and arrive on time;
- I will remember that winning isn't everything; that having fun, playing fair, improving my skills, making friends, and giving my best efforts are the most important aspects of youth soccer;
- I will show respect and courtesy to coaches, spectators, teammates, and opponents at all times.
- I will avoid overly-aggressive play and never play the game in a way that might cause injury to myself or my opponent;
- I will control my temper, resist the temptation to retaliate, and exercise self control;
- I will concentrate on playing soccer by always giving my best effort, both in practice and in games;
- I will follow coaching direction and will not be disruptive during practice or games, nor will I "mouth off" or use bad language.
- I will show respect for the authority of the referee, even though I may sometimes disagree with his or her calls; I will not speak to the referee unless the referee initiates a discussion;
- I will shake hands with my opponents and the referees after the match;
- I will be humble and gracious in victory, but proud and courteous in defeat.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any of the following actions may be taken:

- Be required to apologize to my teammates, the other team, or referee
- Be dropped or substituted
- Be suspended from training
- Be required to leave the club